TEN TWEETABLE TRUTHS

6 Local information is the main reason for reading community newspapers.³

- Nine in ten (89%) print readers read for local information.
- 50% of print readers read for the advertising. 42% read for classifieds, jobs, and real estate information.

7 Almost half of print community newspaper readers read for the flyers.^{1,5}

- Eight in ten (77%) community newspaper readers use flyers to plan their grocery purchases.
- Flyers are also used for entertainment/restaurants (56%), health/personal care (53%), and clothing (51%) purchases.

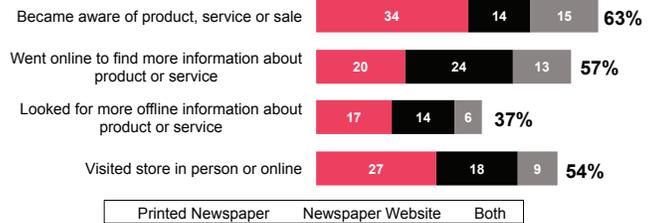

8 News media ads inspire action.¹

After being exposed to a news media ad:

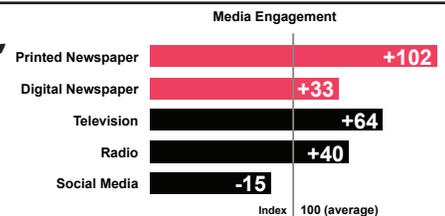

- 57% of Canadians went online for more information about a product/service.
- More than half (54%) visited a store.

Actions Taken From Exposure to News Media Ads:

9 When reading a newspaper, Canadians give it their full attention, compared to other media where attention may be fractured.¹

- Printed newspapers scored 102% above average, the highest of all media measured.
- Social media scored 15% below average in engagement.

10

The COVID-19 pandemic has made it clear to Canadians that newspapers are an essential service. A third started reading newspapers in print or digital, and more than four in ten plan to continue reading newspapers to the same degree post-pandemic.²
